Bago University
Department of Philosophy
First Semester Examination, March 2019

Second Year
(Myanmar Specialization)

Phil 2003
Aesthetics -I
Time Allowed: (3) Hours

Answer FIVE questions.

1. Choose correct words, fill in the blanks and rewrite the followings.

(a) In axiology, there are two subjects namely, Ethics and ----------. (Logic, Aesthetics, Metaphysis)

(b) The term Aesthetics comes from the ---------- word. (Greek, Latin, Italian)

(c) Baumgarten meant, art is considered as a subject that is to be perceived by ----------.
(reasoning, sensation, thinking)

(d) The New Critics attempt to concentrate solely upon the ---------- nature of the work.
(main, general, intrinsic)

(e) The term 'Art' derived from the ----------word 'Arts'. (Latin, Greek, French)

(f) Painting, Sculpture, architecture are ---------- art. (literary, mixed musical, visual)

(g) According to Plato, art is mimesis ----------. (denotation, connotation, imitation)

(h) According to Veron works of art must the ---------- or emotion. (thinking, feeling, reasoning)

2. Describe the general characteristics of Aesthetics? Briefly explain about them.

3. What are different kinds of Art criticism? Explain them.

4. Discuss the "Plato's Theory of Imitation".

5. Completely evaluate the Aristotle's Theory of Art.

6. Critically examine Eugene Veron's Theory of Expression of Emotion.

7. What is "significant form" in Formalism? Explain.

»«