Bago University
Department of Philosophy
First Semester Examination, March 2019

Second Year
(Philosophy Specialization)

Phil 2101
Eastern Philosophy -I
Time Allowed: (3) Hours

Answer FIVE questions.

1. Choose correct words, fill in the blanks and rewrite the followings.

(a) ---------- period is the period in which religion, philosophy, superstition and thought were interrelated. ( Vedic, Epic, Sutra )

(b) The fourth noble truth of Buddha is a ----------. ( method, technique, way )

(c) In Buddhism, perfection of knowledge is impossible without ----------. ( mentality, morality, mortality )

(d) The Mimamsa's philosophy is ---------- but not empiricism. ( monism, dualism, pluralism )

(e) According to ----------, the effect exists in the cause. ( Saikarya-vada, Asaikarya-vada, Sankhya Yoga )

(f) According to Sankara, ---------- is like a magic show. (devotion, creation, motivation )

(g) According to Sankara, The origin of world is the ---------- power of God. (tual, critical, magical )

(h) Right ---------- consists abstention form lying, slander, unkind words and frivolous. ( view, resolve, speech )

2. State and explain the general characteristics of Indian philosophy.

3. Briefly explain "Carvaka's Ethics".

4. Describe and explain the "Seven forms of Judgment".

5. Explain "The noble truth of the way that leads to the ending of suffering".

6. Briefly explain "the Epistemology of Nyaya Vaisesika".

7. (a) Critically evaluate "Sankhya Yoga Theory of Causation".

(or)

(b) Critically evaluate "Mimamsa Theory of Knowledge".

«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»«»