Bago University
Department of Philosophy
First Semester Examination, March 2019

Second Year
(Philosophy Specialization)

Phil 2104
The Cultural and Ethical Aspects of Environmental Conservation -I
Time Allowed: (3) Hours

Answer FIVE questions.

1. Choose correct words, fill in the blanks and rewrite the followings.

(a) Animals and plants in an ecosystem have a pattern of feeding ----------.

(politic, science, relationship)

(b) Commercial farming practices aims at maximizing crop yields and ----------.

(out comes, results, profits)

(c) Leopold attacks the ---------- attitudes about environmental responsibility. (current, recent, new)

(d) There are a number of modern philosophers and----------. (psychologists, scientists, mechanics)

(e) Future generations will be ---------- the same as we are. (essential, requirement, necessity)

(f) Responsibility is part of the meaning of ----------. (reverence, worship, reality)

(g) According to John Locke, once said, we are owe the future ---------- and as good as we received from the past. (sufficiency, enough, adequacy)

(h) The Frontier Mentality is the dominant ---------- structure or paradigm of modern society.

(belief, conviction, faith)

2. State and explain about the Environmental Conservation.

3. What is the Science of Ecology? Explain.

4. Mention Current Issues that Cause Environmental Degradation and explain any two of them.

5. Discuss the need for an Ethics of Environmental Conservation and Sustainable Development.

6. Describe and explain five practical reasons for the new interest in morality and ethics.

7. Write short note any one of them.

(a) Eco centrism

(b) Reverence for life

(c) The Frontier Mentality

«»