Bago University

Department of Philosophy

First Semester Examination, March 2019

Third Year Phil 3106

(Philosophy Specialization) Ethics -I (Theoretical Ethics)

Time Allowed: (3) Hours

Answer FIVE questions.

1. Choose correct words, fill in the blanks and rewrite the followings.

(a) Morally at the level of conscience is known as -------- morality. (customary, instinctive, reflective)

(b) Philosophers today usually divided ---------- theories into three general areas.
(ethical, social, political)

(c) According to -------- moral values are identified with subjective experiences of likes and dislikes.
(formalist, empiricists, rationalists)

(d) For Socrates ---------- is the highest good. (pleasure, wisdom, knowledge)

(e) Kant explains the relation between a good will and --------. (intelligence, duty, courage)

(f) -------- arises from the satisfaction of some desire or interest. (Moral, Value, Ethics)

(g) The -------- is concerned with standards, norms, criteria and so on. (freedom, relative, ought)

(h) ---------- set forth formalism, one of the greatest moral systems. (Bentham, Mill, Kant)

2. State and evaluate the nature of ethics.

3. Examine the one of the fundamental ethics concepts.

4. Make critical assessment on ancient Greek ethics.

5. Explain how do you understand the statement " The greatest happiness of greatest numbers".

6. Write an essay on Darwin's theory of natural selection.

7. Write short notes one of the following.

(a) The concept of ethics with the Japanese term rinri.

(b) The concept of Duty in Bhagavad-Gita

»«