

Bago University
Department of English
First Semester Examination, March 2019

Fourth Year
(English Specialization)

Eng 4101
Research Paper Writing
Time Allowed: (3) Hours

Section (A)

Answer ALL questions.

I. Fill in the blanks with suitable words.

1. The introduction can be divided into _____ parts.
2. The statement of value may be written from the point of view of the _____ and _____ orientation.
3. The writer should place _____ at the beginning of sentences in order to link the ideas in stage I, the setting.
4. The writers should not sound too sure of the _____ when reporting his/her own study.
5. _____ is a paper written by an investigator to describe a research study that he or she has completed.
6. The description of the purpose, methods and _____ of the study are normally included in a report.
7. In formal research work, the formulation of a statement of expected results is known as _____.
8. The second stage of the introduction section is called the _____.
9. When a researcher wants to focus on the information provided by the author, the _____ can be used.

II. Complete the blanks with the correct form of the verbs given in brackets.

1. This thesis _____ (explain) the optimal engineering design method for rock filter systems.
2. The result has been _____ (an/the/-) unprecedented increase in the use of lightweight structural materials.
3. _____ there is some evidence that chemical processes may also contribute to rubber fatigue, there is little literature available concerning this ability.
4. Water _____ (pump) through the south facing collectors by a circulation pump.
The objective of the study _____ (be) to investigate construction problems and to develop specifications for a full – scaled test.
5. Loftus, Miller, and Burns (1978) _____ (reveal) that a further variable affecting the reliability of eyewitness accounts is the time lapse between the event and the introduction of post event information.
6. The students _____ (divide) into groups of three and were exposed to one of three types of stimulus material.
7. Gubser (1980) and Hinton (1980) _____ (suggest) phenomenal increases in the numbers of computers both in the school and the home is the near future.

8. There have been _____ (few / no / much) studies of litter distribution and soil fauna in any of the word deserts (Wallwork, 1976).
9. Little literature _____ (publish) on subsurface irrigation and fertilization through the emitters.

III. Use the information in the following statements to write a complete citation for each book mentioned.

1. I am now reading a book and the title of this book is "Teacher Development and Teacher Education in Developing Countries." The author is Ayesha Bashiruddin and it was published by Palgrave Macmillan Press in 2018. The publisher is located in London.
2. Recently I bought a book called "Top 50 Grammar Mistakes." This book was written by Adrian Wallwork. It was published by Springer Press in 2018. The publisher is located in Switzerland.
3. I enjoy reading a book called "The Things You Can See Only When You Slow Down." It was written by Haemin Sunim. It was published by Penguin Random House in 2012. The publisher is located in New York.
4. I would like to recommend you a book called "Outcomes-based Assessment for Learner-centered Education." The authors of this book are Amy Driscoll and Swarup Wood. It was published by Stylus Publishing in 2017. The publisher is located in Virginia.
5. I strongly advised you to read an article in English Teaching Forum. The author is a famous researcher named Jerrold Frank. You will find it between pages 32-43 in volume 56. The title of the article is "The Roles of Assessment in Language Teaching." It appeared in the journal in 2012.

Section (B)

Answer ANY Three questions.

1. Which section of a report must be written after the title and before the introduction? How does the researcher order the information in this section?
2. "The introduction of experimental research reports focus on the kinds of information and the order of information." Discuss any three stages of the introduction of a research report.
3. "An experimental research report is a paper written by an investigator to describe study that he or she has completed." Discuss the format, purpose and steps of an experimental research report.
4. Explain the ways to cite the works of the other authors with the use of verb tense in each way.
